Management Club Meet Set Today

The Industrial Management Club will hold its "Past Presidents' Night" at the Holiday Inn on Euclid Avenue today.

Dr. Richard Underhill, director of the management and development center of the University of Richmond, will be the featured speaker. He will discuss "Supervision as a Development Activity." The meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Past presidents of the club from 1950 to the present are expected to attend. Burt Edleson is the current president.

Dr. Underhill is a former administrative assistant to the CIA where he was a specialist in Russian affairs. He has been with the University of Richmond since 1963 and is a current member of several organizations, including the Industrial Relations Research Association, the Academy of Management, and the American Society of Research Administrators.
